PLAINTIFFS' SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR CONSOLIDATION AND OPPOSITION TO STAY OF LATER-FILED CASES

Plaintiffs and the proposed class in the above captioned Gilbert case support of the motions to consolidate the Andrews and Davis cases with the first-filed Gilbert case, rather than stay the two later filed cases as suggested by Lands' End. (See Dkt. 27, 28 and 29) As the Court correctly noted in the Order scheduling Oral Argument (Dkt. 30), counsel in the Gilbert case are in talks with counsel in the Andrews case to set up an interim class counsel structure that will enable the attorneys to work together cooperatively. Since the recent filing of the Davis case, that counsel has also been included in this discussion.

In the near future we hope to submit a motion for approval of an interim class counsel structure. This will eliminate the Court's concern that three sets of plaintiffs' counsel will be acting simultaneously. Rather, the cooperative efforts among counsel will result in a beneficial and more efficient division of labor. Thus, not only do the cases share common questions of fact and law, but consolidation would serve the interests of judicial economy.
